NIGERIA TRIP

In May, 14th having waited for more than 8months, not receiving our release letter from Calvary Ministries (CAPRO) Bidemi, called the International Director and it was agreed that we should come back to Nigeria, though we had no money for the tickets about 540'000 CFA, we decided to travel by road, atleast a weeks' journey, And God saw our faith and determination to go for peace sake; having booked with the Airlines to travel on the 20th, provided the whole money needed for the tickets by 5:30pm on Friday 18th; And we made the journey on 20th May. "Faithful is He who has called us".

And by 22nd May, the International Mobilization Director of Calvary Ministries (CAPRO), stood for the entire CAPRO family to pray for us and officially gave us the release letter. He counseled us to keep the good fight of faith, and not to forget the rudiments of our missionary training as we continue in what God has committed into our hands. He apologized for the delaying of the letter. They refunded us a one way ticket, which is more than half of total cost. We express our gratitude and thanks to them.

Also our father in the Lord prayed and counseled us regarding to the vision/Ministry. The elders and the entire congregation of Glory Tabernacle Ministry in Ibadan, Nigeria prophetically prayed for us that God will prove Himself real and faithful more than ever and time of earnest righteous short".

A wonderful time to see our family members, aged parents, and minister to them as children, though we didn't have much time with them but what a Joy!

The journey was full of testimonies as the Lord by his mercies restored the salvation of His children and set free those under captivity and healed the sick. It was a timely visit. May the name of our God be praised for ever!

WHILE AWAY!

While away to Nigeria, the fire on the altar kept burning, as Diatta and Soda held all the Sunday services. Diatta leads the prayer meeting while Soda preached. They kept their personal time with the Lord and prayed daily as a family. Their faith is speaking volume to the widow who has not accepted Christ yet. "Do not despise these small beginnings, for the Lord rejoices to see the work begin..." Zach. 4:10a (NLT)

WHAT NEXT!

Having received the blessings from CAPRO and our local Church peacefully, we would love to start the registration of the Ministry, in order to be recognized legally by the government as an independent Mission "CROWN OF LIFE OUTREACH MINISTRIES (COLOM).

Beloved, the realness of this model of the orphanage home confirmed it is settled in heaven, yet the physical manifestation of it depends on each one of us. We're trusting God for the finance needed to construct "KER BOROOM BI" which means "The Lord's House" before the year runs out. And the running cost for the home. We have information that almost 10children are waiting already to come to the center.

HOLIDAYS!

We couldn't believe it, that a school year has come to an end!
